THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Oct. 22, 1866.

A Remarkable Scene.

Two days before Mr. John Van Buren died, the following remarkable scene occurred. We quote from the New York World:

A TOUCHING SCENE.

On Friday this supreme anxiety of Mr. Van Buren for the restoration of the Union showed itself in an instance which is probably one of the most remarkable in mortuary history. He was feeling physically better. His mind showed however, no increase of directness or clearness upon general topics, or upon any at all, excepting that singular intensity with which he contemplated the distracted condition of the country. While half reclining, half sitting up, supported by the arm of his daughter and niece on either side, Mr. Van Buren's eye lighted up with an unusual brilliancy, and even in his position he seemed to expand to the eye with the pride and port of the orator of other days. The narrow cabin became a vast auditorium to his view, the few friends a mighty audience, but, more than all, the interests of the country rose supreme in his mind and compelled utterance.—He began a speech on national affairs, and concluded it not until he had spoken without interruption two and a quarter hours. The gentlemen around his bed say that it was in all respects worthy of, and in some superior to, his happiest efforts. At the first he rapidly and perspicuously photographed the progress, the purposes, and the problems of the late war, and emphasized the pledged faith of the national government that it could and should ultimate only in a secured Union of free and equal States. He then adverted to the efforts of Mr. Johnson to carry out that pledge in letter and spirit, and to have for his inspiration and guide the unmistakable commands of the Constitution, and the generous magnanimity of the people. This part of this most remarkable address was followed by a scarification of Congress in terms of satire, eloquence and reproach, of which none were so capable as he. A rapid review of the policy of reunion and disunion next ensued, and he thought he was once more addressing his fellow-citizens in his native State. The subject was presented with a splendid reference to the natural interests and historic greatness of the Empire State, imperatively demanding that she plant herself, square on the side of a perfected Union of equal and honored States. At the close Mr. Van Buren pronounced a eulogy upon the worth, the talent, the integrity of Hon. John T. Hoffman, such as only a man of his strong intimacy with the subject of his praise, and that intensity of personal attachment, of which he developed such a remarkable amount, could so gracefully, so sincerely, and so magnetically pronounce. As a piece of composition, whether viewed as a literary, an argumentative, or an oratorical production, this dying address was in all respects no less a credit to the National reputation of the speaker, than it was a vindication and tribute to the cause and motives that evoked its utterance."

BASE BALL.—The national game of America is now, par excellence, base ball. We can imagine how readily the English game of cricket was transformed into this active game, which is so much more suitable to the habits and temperament of our people. Cricket—although a highly scientific game—is a slow and serious pastime compared with its American prototype. It requires more skill perhaps to play it well, and closer study for the looker on to understand it; but everybody, ladies and all, comprehends the game of base ball, which is a matter of quickness of eye, rapid play of muscle, swiftness of foot, and ever changing position, that carry the interest of the spectator as well as the player directly into the fortunes of the game. Hence our national game chimes exactly with our national characteristics. The phlegmatic element of the Anglo-Saxon family may be fairly represented in the English game of cricket, during which the original Anglo-Saxon can dawdle off and smoke his democratic pipe or aristocratic cigar at intervals; but the new branch of the family in America, with young, vigorous blood swelling its veins, wants constant life and motion in its sports. Hence the English game has almost fallen into decay among us, while the American game is every day attracting the interest which but a short time ago attached almost exclusively to the race course, or, among certain classes, to the prize ring.—N. Y. Herald.

ACCOMMODATING HIMSELF TO CIRCUMSTANCES.—The Richmond correspondent of the Danville Register tells the following anecdote about Gen. "Alleghany" Johnson, on the march to Bristoe station in the fall of 1863. The General was riding along the road, and perceiving one of his men up a persimmon tree, hallooed out to him:

"I say there, what are you doing up there? Why ain't you with your regiment?"

"I'm gettin' simmons, I am," replied the soldier.

"Persimmons, thunder! They are not yet ripe. They are not fit to eat."

"Yes, but general," persisted the Confed, I'm trying to draw my stomach up to the size of my rations. If it stays like it is now I shall starve."

The General had nothing further to say, but rode on.

SILK GROWING IN ALABAMA.—Mr. Wiley Duffy, of Davidson, Tallapoosa county, was in our office yesterday and exhibited a number of skeins of sewing silk of all colors. They were spun by his wife, and equal the silk which is brought by our merchants from the North. Mr. Duffy is able to sell them under the market price. Last year Mr. Duffy's wife sold silk thread to the value of $180. When we reflect that the mulberry grows luxuriantly on the hills of Alabama, and that the labor of spinning the silk is but slight, the whole work of feeding the silk worm and gathering the cocoons occupy but four months of the year, and when we reflect furthermore that $180 will supply meat and bread enough to a large family for the year, we would advise our people of the hills who are in want to plant mulberry orchards and spin silk.—Montgomery Mail, Oct. 6.

As Beast Butler was driving from his hotel in Columbus, Ohio, to the depot, a man in great haste ran from the sidewalk into the street, stopped the carriage, and exclaimed, holding up a dirty spoon: "Here, General, here's something you dropped."

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VINCENT A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 22, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

I prefer selling the whole tract to one man, but will cut it into hundred acre tracts to suit purchasers.—To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, and I will sell on favorable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put on the Cars at Vinson's Mill, where they will always find me.

I will also sell a TWENTY HORSE power SAW MILL, in good working order, with teams, waggons, and all appurtenances.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, October 22, 1866.

The Election.

The returns come in very slowly. The same inexcusable indifference that prevailed as to voting appears to exist as to transmitting the returns or ascertaining the result.

From the complexion of the returns before us we do not think that the entire vote of the State will greatly exceed 50,000 which is but little more, probably, than half what the State can poll. It is impossible, as yet, to say what will be Gov. Worth's majority. It will be decisive, emphatic, overwhelming, however, and will put North Carolina right on the record.

We repeat what we have heretofore said:—That the vote will develope the entire strength of the Howard amendment faction in the State. They have really worked, in secret, with an earnestnessness and determination, that show a compact organization and a desperate purpose. One would suppose that, in the face of the crushing verdict of the people against them, they would now cease their efforts to degrade the State and proscribe and ruin their fellow citizens. We shall see whether this will be the result, though we confess we have but little hope of it.

Had there been open opposition to Gov. Worth, his vote would have been twice as large as it is. The people, generally, regarded his election as a matter of course, and hence did not trouble themselves to go to the polls.

As to the Legislature, we reiterate our former opinion, that there will not be twenty Radicals in both Houses put together.

"At the present time the laws of the Southern States declare the negroes free from nearly all social and political privileges. They have no opportunities for acquiring education, no means of raising themselves above their present level of degradation. The Southern people should now take this despised race by the hand and help them out of the social pit in which they have so long been mired. They should break away the barriers which prevent negro children from attending school and acquiring education. They should cut from the State laws every section which makes an invidious distinction against the black race, and they should encourage education among them by allowing negroes having certain educational qualifications to vote."—Northern Paper.

We do not know from what paper the above is clipped. Its paternity is however clearly Radical. If our Northern enemies would think a moment, their own reflections would at once instruct them, that Southern people who know, a thousand times better than they can possibly know, the real condition, aptitudes and idiosyncracies of the colored race, cannot fix the same estimate upon that race or view it in the same light that Northern ultra-abolitionists do.

At a sacrifice which can hardly be estimated in dollars and cents, producing almost universal bankruptcy among the people of the South, our people have abolished slavery. The South attaches no blame to the colored race for their emancipation. Where the colored people have not been improperly tampered with by Northern people, their deportment in the main has been unobjectionable since their freedom. The sympathy between the Southern whites and blacks is kind and strong. Our people are disposed to encourage them in every way to promote their material interests and their intelligence, and all proper encouragement will be given in promoting their real welfare. As to their social elevation, if it is meant their being placed on the same level with the whites, it is simply Utopian to expect it. Human laws can never regulate the social condition of any people. If they are ever granted political equality by the votes of Southern whites, it will be only when the South is convinced they merit it.

To grant the blacks the privilege of voting upon the ground that they own property or can read and write, would, under the practical operation of the Howard amendment, if it were adopted, subject the white men of the State adopting qualified negro suffrage to the same qualification. The principle running through the Howard amendment is the equality of the two races in all respects, placing in the hands of Congress the power to enforce the equality. Hence, if a Northern or Southern Legislature should adopt a qualified suffrage for negroes, it will be in the power of Congress to demand that the white voters in each State shall be reduced to the same standard. This, we say, will be the practical result of the Howard amendment in all the States, and who can doubt, if the Radical policy prevails, that in ten years from the present time, suffrage for both races will either be universal or both will be reduced to the same standard.

THE NEWBERN Times has been purchased by Col. S. D. Pool and Mr. R. A. Shotwell. The former gentleman will conduct the Editorial and the latter the Local department. The name of the paper has been changed to the Journal of Commerce, and it is needless to say that its politics have been changed also. Under the auspices of Col. Pool it will be an able and zealous advocate of the President's policy and a decided enemy of Radicalism in all its phases. We wish the new paper all imaginable success, as we are sure it will eminently deserve it.

RANDOLPH.—This county, it will be seen, has emphatically declared itself in favor of the Howard amendment. The Red String organization in that county was complete. Its record in the past authorized that expectation, although her once favorite son had the strongest claims upon her. Up to this writing Randolph is the only county which has elected Howard amendment men to the Legislature that we have heard of. Several other counties will follow its example.

SPECIAL TERM.—Hon. Ralph P. Buxton, judge of the superior court of law and equity has been appointed by the Governor to hold a special term for the county of Chatham, on the first Monday in December next.

Election Returns.

Randolph.—Senate—Wrenn 790, Robins 508. Commons—Ashworth 784, Blair 768, Walker 572, Gregson 385. Ashworth and Blair, Rads., elected.

Carteret.—Senate—Koonce 244, Bell 194.—House—Perry 358, Davis 111.

Greene.—Senate—Coward 275, Speight 170. Commons—Rountree 268, Taylor 180.

Wayne.—Senate—Thompson 326, Coor 255. House—Everett 427, Garriss 445, Robinson 100 Coor 58, Rhodes 80.

Surry.—Senate—Cowles 487, Wilkerson 139. House—Waugh 419, Forkner 368.

In Burke, Worth is reported to lead Dockery nearly 500 votes; in McDowell over 300; in Caldwell three to one; in Catawba about 400 and in Alexander about 400.

The election of Col. Avery in the Senatorial District of Burke, McDowell and Caldwell is a most gratifying result. We learn that the most active exertions were made to defeat him, and to reduce Gov. Worth's vote. A correspondent informs us that the whole country was flooded with Dockery tickets.

Jonathan Worth is probably re-elected Governor of North Carolina by a large vote over Alfred Dockery, who was a well known Union man during the war.—New York Herald.

The Herald does not labor to present the true aspects of any question when it interferes with its designs. It prefers misrepresentation and falsehood to truth, when they serve its ends.—Gov. Worth is certainly elected Governor. Gen. Dockery has been voted for, though not a candidate, by all those who have kept or who would keep the State in turmoil, and who favor Radical measures. Wherever the Red String and the Quaker influence could be brought to bear against Gov. Worth it has been done, not because Gen. Dockery was or is a better Union man than Gov. Worth, for the record of Gov. Worth in this regard is transcendently superior to Gen. Dockery's, but because of the effort made by men under Radical influence to secure them to the interests of that party. Even men, who denounce with bitterness the Radical policy, have lent their efforts and influence to promote the success of the opposition to Gov. Worth and the Johnson policy, from private and personal considerations. We have never had an election in which the people took so little interest, for the reason that their pecuniary condition at home engrosses all other thoughts and cares. Had Gen. Dockery been an out and out candidate, and a full vote been secured, Gov. Worth's majority would have been the most overwhelming ever known in the State. His consistent course as a true friend of the State, his indefatigable labors to promote her welfare, and his unquestionable devotion to the Constitution and the Union, would have secured him the most unqualified endorsement. As it is, the endorsement is emphatic enough for all practical purposes.

JOHNSTON.—Though bordering upon Wake, we have not yet heard from Johnston. We have seen a citizen from Johnston, but he neither went to the election nor heard who were the candidates. Will not some friend let us hear from Johnston. We are fully prepared to hear the worst news from that County.

AN INCIDENT.—At the election here, on Thursday last, we are informed that some one put in the box a printed ticket with the following:

"For Governor: Zebulon B. Vance, of Buncombe, against the world, the flesh and the devil."

On and after the 1st. November there will be a through tariff at reduced rates between the Richmond and Petersburg, Petersburg and Weldon, Raleigh and Gaston, and the North Carolina railroads to Charlotte, North Carolina.

THE PRESIDENT, on the 18th inst., pardoned George V. Strong, of Goldsboro'.

GREAT SHOWER OF METEORS EXPECTED.—Next in grandeur and sublimity to a total solar eclipse, or a great comet stretched athwart the starry heavens, is the great meteoric shower, such as was witnessed here in November, 1833. On this occasion, from two o'clock till broad daylight, the sky being perfectly serene and cloudless, the whole heavens were lighted with a magnificent and imposing display of celestial fire-works. Arago computes that not less than two hundred and forty thousand meteors were visible above the horizon of Boston on the morning of the 13th of November, 1833. This display was seen all over North America. A similar display was seen by Humboldt at Cumana, South America, in 1799. A comparison of the epochs of appearance of these great showers has led to the discovery that they are periodic, their returns being separated from each other by a third part of a century, or some multiple of this period, and are periodical appearances of one grand meteoric shower. Professor Newton, of Yale College, who has devoted much time to the investigation of the periodic character of these showers, finds that a prodigious flight or meteors, the most imposing of its kind, will make its appearance, probably for the last time in this century, on the morning of the 13th or 14th of November next. Only thirteen of these great showers are recorded between the years 903 and 1833. Such a rare phenomenon awakens a deep interest among all classes of persons. Preparations to observe this sublime spectacle, for scintific purposes, have already commenced in Europe. Let no one forget Tuesday and Wednesday nights, November 13th and 14th.—Boston Commercial.

The Radical demand to the South is this: Reject the amendments, and we keep you out of the Union; adopt them, and we do not promise to let you in. It is the story of white man and Indian over again. The two shot a turkey and a crow. Said the white man: "Now, you take the crow and I'll take the "turkey, or let me take the turkey and you the "crow." "Ugh!" was the rejoinder, "Indian get crow all the time." So, under the Radicals, the South will get exclusion all the time.—N. Y. World.

Heretofore the editor of this paper, having never travelled, has been imposed upon considerably. He has been to New York now, and nobody can fool him. The unsuccessful attempt in that direction a day or two since will teach the gentleman who tried to steal his pipe a lesson.—Weldon Slate.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

The Amendment.

[From the Louisville Journal—Prentice's Paper.]

Tennessee got herself restored upon conditions that disgraced her or those who held sway over her. She got restored by voluntarily consenting or being compelled by her fears or supposed interest to consent to the disfranchisement of a very large proportion of her voting population. She had better have remained as she was till the "crack of doom." What good can her present position do her, or what credit can it be to her, governed and tyrannized over and ground down by despotism as she is destined to be?

Prompt and quick to raise the flag of rebellion in 1861, Tennessee is now in full possession of the bad and shameful notoriety of accepting such degrading terms from the Radicals as no one of the other Southern States has accepted or ever will except. She stands alone among all the States of the South and will never have company.

Far, very far, be it from us to condemn the entire masses of Tennessee. There are multitudes of men in Tennessee as proud, as independent, as patriotic, as high souled, as devoted to the great principles of constitutional freedom, as any people in the world. Such would sooner have their arms and legs and hearts wither than vote for the conditions of restoration insolently accorded to their State.

[Prentice does the people of Tennessee injustice. It is not the men who defended their State that now betray it. Only the Hunnicuts and Underwoods and Bottses.]

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer.]

"The late enemies" of the Union have themselves to thank for the result of the contest in the great Northern States. Had they had the wisdom to quietly accept the conditions which defeat imposed, been less open in the expression of the conviction that they were in the right and the North in the wrong, and especially had they manifested any disposition to tolerate and live quietly with those of their fellow-citizens who did not believe there was justifying cause for secession and war, we have no hesitation in saying the result of the elections, if it had depended upon the proposed amendment, would have been modified and perhaps different."—Commercial.

"The late enemies of the Union" have done nothing that renders them responsible for the result of the election in the Northern States.—They have accepted quietly all the conditions which defeat imposed upon them at the conclusion of the war. Those conditions, as they were made by the victorious party, were a return to the Union and the ratification of the Constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. Both were accepted and promptly carried out by the seceded States. They then had the promise of the Government of the United States that nothing remained for them but to resume their old relations with it. They attemped to do so, when lo, and behold! the conditions of peace are treacherously violated by a party in the North, and new and more extraordinary ones imposed that were not thought of during the war, or at its conclusion.

Seeing the first conditions of the peace thus broken, what evidence has the South that the new ones now proposed will be adhered to?—None at all. The very men who propose them tell us that they are not final and conclusive, and that other and still more important conditions hereafter must be ratified by them?

As to their private opinions and convictions in the past, no one having sense or respect for his own would expect them to surrender them, and any such expectation is in the highest degree mean and tyrannical. As to their not living quietly with Union men at the South, the charge to the contrary is in the main, and in all its length and breadth, a pure and simple falsehood, having no semblance of truth, and only originated in the foulest rascality and crime.

Something New.

[From the New York Express of Monday.]

There is "something new under the sun," after all. What do you think of a "Mother and Infant Reception?" One of these novel and now fashionable receptions took place on Thursday last. The young wife of one of our distinguished lawyers invited her lady friends to see her beautiful infant when it reached the advanced age of four weeks. The rosy looking baby was attired in a beautiful dress of lace, sleeves looped with gold, and a broad blue sash around its waist. The mother wore an elegant French gown of deep lavender, made in broad plaits at the back, and floated from the neck in a long train. Broad lavender ribbons were fastened on each shoulder, brought down to the waist, and finished with a bow and long ends. The point of the robe opened over a skirt of cambric, tucked with cluny between each tuck, and lined with lavender; lavender gloves, and same colored ribbons on her hair, completed a most distinguished toilet. The reception was from two until four o'clock, and during those hours the street in front of the house was lined with elegant carriages. Benoiton was in the ascendant. Fair forms floated from the carriages, dressed in the latest style. Bonnets which looked like head-dresses, basques deep pointed, shawls of lace and cashmere, dressess of moire and corded silk, and diamonds, lent their richness for the occasion. The perfume of the sweetest flowers filled the rooms, and the ladies gloried in enjoying themselves all the more within, when the nearest pair of pantaloons was on the coach box outside. The conversation was especially unique. The reception was not even profaned by a man waiter appearing. Many rich presents were given to the unconscious little cherub, on whose account so much fuss had been made. Even the invitations were novel.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.—There is much concurrent testimony as to the failing health of Jeff. Davis. He has the best treatment and attendance, and suffers for nothing, but is, nevertheless, wasting away, not now slowly, but with daily increasing rapidity. There is reason to fear that he will die in prison. If this could have occurred soon after his arrest it might have been considered the Providential solution of an embarrassing problem. After nearly two years' imprisonment on a trumped up and manifestly false charge of having procured the assassination of President Lincoln, and being denied a trial upon that charge, or for the real crime of treason, if he should now die a prisoner it would be a national disgrace not easily effaced. The paltry evasions and excuses put forth for the denial of this constitutional right of speedy trial only make the case worse, and as it is now certain that Davis will not be tried until Congress meets and corrects its bungling work upon the judiciary bill, the President ought at once to release him on bail or parole, that he may not die in prison.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

Governor Brownlow threatens to disperse by force any Convention that shall assemble in Tennessee to change the government of that State. Was it not the alleged attempt to do in Louisiana what Brownlow threatens in Tennessee that so shocked the Radicals throughout the country? Exactly; then why is not Brownlow condemned as sharply as was Mayor Monroe?—Cats differ in colors.—Boston Post.

GENERAL NEWS.

Forney, in a letter to the Philadelphia Press, predicts that if Governor Swann attempts to remove the Police Commissioners of Baltimore they will resist. He also states that the policemen are directed to arrest, as disturbers of the peace, any body pretending to interfere with them; that Mayor Chapman will never succumb, but will fight it out to the bitter end; that Generals Denison and Wooley have offered their services to the Mayor, and that all the Union men in Baltimore swear they will drench the streets with blood, &c., &c., &c.

THE LADIES OF MARYLAND.—Gov. Humphrey in his late message to the Legislature says, in acknowledging a donation of $18,000 from Maryland: "This noble charity is a renewed evidence of the tender sympathy felt for the families of our gallant dead and their brave survivors, and a touching tribute to the justice of the cause for which they fought and suffered, and must forever bind the hearts of true Mississippians in chords of love and affection to the true-hearted and patriotic ladies of Maryland.

At Charleston, on Thursday, during a flag presentation to a zouave volunteer company of negroes, General Scott arrested all who wore shoulder straps and side arms in violation of the order of the department prohibiting military organizations of any kind in South Carolina.

SOUTHERN RELIEF FAIR.—This fair in St. Louis is a decided success. The fifty railroads contributed the earnings of one day, one reaching as high as $400, 50, and the whole overrunning $1,180. A large number of elegant and costly articles were disposed of by raffle, and on Tuesday night a grand calico ball was held, which was liberally patronized.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—Returns for Governor in all but two counties in Pensylvania show a majority of 17,151 for Geary, Radical. The two counties to be heard from will not materially charge the result. Last year the Radical majority in the State was 22,660.

A ROW IN GOLDSBORO'.—We learn by last night's train that quite a row occurred just before the departure of the train yesterday. It appears that a negro soldier went to the barber shop of Mr. Jas. Smith and asked to be shaved. He was told by Mr. Smith that he did not shave negroes; upon this the negro became very abusive and cursed Mr. S., and was finally beaten by Smith out of his shop, when he proceeded to draw a pistol he had slung by his side.—A number of men now interfered, and this resulted in some shooting and a grand chase after the negro. He was finally landed at the office of the Freedmen's Bureau, with what result was not known, when the train left.—Newbern Commercial.

TO TEACHERS.

The Trustees of the Oxford Female Academy desire to make arrangements with a competent teacher, to take charge of that institution, at the close of the present year. It is pleasantly situated in the town of Oxford, in one of the most healthful sections of the State; it has been in successful operation for more than fifty years, and has perhaps educated more young ladies than any other similar institution in the State.

The trustees will make liberal terms with a competent teacher, who can come well recommended.

Applications will be received until the 10th. day of November next, when a choice will be made.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Oct. 22, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Oliver Ditson & Co., Musical Publishers, Boston: Gems of Scottish song.

Application will be made to the next Legislature for the incorporation of Rock-Rest Lodge, No. 161, F. A. M.

A. Kline makes a number of new and attractive announcements.

MILITARY.—We learn that Gen. Robinson, having returned to this city, resumes command in this Department.

Col. Bomford, who retires, has the best wishes of the community. His administration has been characterized by amenity and courtesy.

It is reported that Col. Stubbs, Chief A. Q. M., will re-establish his headquarters in Raleigh.

HIS EXCELLENCY Gov. Worth, accompanied by the members of the Internal Improvement Board, will leave the city to-morrow, on a tour of inspection through the Albemarle and Chesapeake ship Canal.

RALEIGH MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—At the meeting of the Stockholders of the Raleigh Manufacturing Company, held on Saturday evening, at the banking house of the Raleigh National Bank, Gen. D. M. Barringer was appointed Chairman and Maj. W. B. Gulick Secretary. The charter was presented for the consideration of the meeting and unanimously adopted, after a slight alteration in its phraseology.

The Stockholders then proceeded to organize under the charter. The following gentlemen were elected as Directors, viz: W. H. Willard, Gen. D. M. Barringer, Hon. Dan. G. Fowle, Hon. Kemp P. Battle, Geo. W. Mordecai, Esq., Gen. Robt. W. Haywood, Capt. W. E. Peirce, Col. Geo. Little and R. W. Pulliam.

After the election of the Board, W. H. Willard, Esq., was unanimously elected President, and appointed to go at once to the North and purchase such machinery as is required to put the establishment into immediate operation. It was resolved to combine the offices of Superintendent, Secretary and Treasurer, and R. N. Taylor, Esq., was appointed to this position. The property, 26 miles West of this City, known as the Orange Factory, in Orange County, has become the property of this Company, and that known as the Gorgas Manufactory is selected for its operations in this City.

There will be at Orange Factory 2100 spindles, in perfect order, in motion by the first day of January, and, very soon thereafter, from 40 to 60 looms will be put in operation in this City, to be added to as the Company may be enabled to command the means.

Mr. Willard left for the North this morning, for the purpose of purchasing the necessary machinery.

Although the subscriptions of stock have been large and liberal, there is yet a deficiency to be made up. We would urge upon our merchants and men of capital the importance of subscribing at once. That the investment will pay handsomely we entertain not the shadow of a doubt. But even if that were questionable, every effort should be made to secure the establishment of an industrial enterprize that promises general benefit to the community and employment to the indigent.

We shall alude to the subject again.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the Yarborough Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given. The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

GRANVILLE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—This Fair, from all we learn, has been a complete success, and has given universal satisfaction. Everything seemed propitious, the weather was delightful, and the smiles of beauty threw a charm over all. The proceedings on Friday, the third and last day of the Fair, terminated with a trotting match between Mr. T. Paxon's black mare and Mr. George Wynn's bay horse,—the former of Buffalo Springs, Va., and the latter of Franklin Co., N. C. This race was very exciting, owing to the fact that Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co., of Raleigh, had presented to the managers a beautiful silver cup, as a prize, to be given to the owner of the fastest trotting horse at the Fair. The prize was won by Mr. Paxon, although hostly contested by Mr. Wynn.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, Oct. 20th and 21st.—C. S. Barbee, Barclaysville; Jas. A. Western, N. C.; J. W. B. Watson, Johnston Co.; J. C. Richardson, do.; Jas. R. Lee and lady, J. D. Williams, Fayetteville; W. E. Pearson, E. Jones, Chapel Hill; J. A. McMannen, South Lowell: W. F. Foober, N. Y.; J. F. T. Young, Petersburg; Jno. J. Garrett, Baltimore; J. R. Dowell, Richmond.

DAN CASTELLO'S Circus is in town and there is a stir up among the children and the blacks. The grip that Castello will make upon the small change alarms every one who knows how scarce money is. We hope the next thing that comes along will bring some money. Some Circus man has said, we forget whom, that whenever his purse needs replenishing, he always takes the nearest route for Raleigh, N. C., or Lynchburg, Va. This is what we call a compliment over the left.

RELIGIOUS.—Some religious interest has manifested itself for a week or two in the Methodist Church in this city, under the labors of Rev. H. T. Hudson. Some eight persons have professed to find peace in believing, and others appear interested.

SHOE FACTORY.—We have several times alluded to the Factory about to be established here to make stripes, ginghams, &c. It will soon go into operation. We have long believed that an extensive shoe factory, properly managed, would do well here. We have already several small establishments, where very superior work is done, but we can see no reason why this immense business should be done principally at the North for this State.

By the way, our old friend, Dobbin, the past week, gave us one of the finest jobs, in style, fit and quality, a footing a pair of boots, we have seen for a time. He has an excellent supply of good stock, and, so far as we can see, equals Miles' best, on terms corresponding with the high price of material, but as moderate as can be expected. Give Dobbin a call, if you want a good job.

Our Monday Morning Dispatches.

From Europe.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.

The Steamship Peruvian is in, with Liverpool dates to the 11th.

There is nothing of political moment from England.

The Empress of Mexico had arrived at Trieste from Rome. It is said that she visited the Vatican, while in Rome, for the purpose of securing the sanction of the Pope to everything her husband had done as Emperior of Mexico, which was at first positively refused. She remained all day making further efforts but the result has not transpired. She is reported to have told the Pope that she would not leave the Vatican unless the request was granted.

The Times says of the great meeting of working-men at Leeds, that no political movement has for a long time attracted so much attention as was proved, on Monday, by the collecting together of so great a multitude in order to discuss and support the principles of the manhood suffrage association, which has been established in London.

The cholera still continues in London.

The Emperor of Austria has decided to renounce the title of King of Lombardy and Venetia.

The Baltimore Police Commissioners.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 20.

No new developments yet in regard to the police difficulty. The Commissioners will respond by counsel on Monday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21, P. M.

The President visited Baltimore to-day, in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friend's Society, to be present at the closing session of the Plenary Council. He is accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to the Police Commissioners, it is understood that a compromise has been proposed by parties representing the Governor, that the Commissioners should appoint one of the judges in each ward and one clerk from the conservative party. This proposition is now under consideration by the Commissioners.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

The Baltimore Commissioners Again.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.

The Police Commissioners were on yesterday in consultation with their counsel and they will not appear in person before the Governor, but file a respone, through counsel, denying his power to try the charges, but at the same time, declaring their readiness to meet accusations before any Court of competent jurisdiction. They have not entertained any proposition looking to compromise, but declare their determination to resist any encroachment upon their functions.

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinsey's policy for $5,000 is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now 'dred.'"

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements, near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign
